26th WOMEN'S TRANS NATIONAL GOLF ASSOCIATION SENIOR FOUR-BALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Conducted at Temecula Creek, Temecula, California

It was an exciting first day of the 54-hole Senior Women's Four-Ball Championship on the Oaks and Creek course at Temecula Creek. Leading the field with a five under 67 is the team of Corey Weworski from Carlsbad, California, and Mary Kay Zordani from Palm Desert, California. Corey Weworski and Mary Kay Zordani have a rich history in this competition. They were Champions in 2015 at Sea Palms Resort in St. Simons, Georgia, and Runners-up in 2016 at Wigwam Golf Resort and Spa in Litchfield Park, Arizona. Corey has also been successful in previous Championships with Andrea Kraus winning the 2013 Championship and Medalist Award, and tying for 2nd in 2014 and winning the Medalist Award.

Four more teams had under par scores the first day. Two teams are tied with a score 70 and two teams are tied with a score of 71. The teams with a score of two under 70 are Kim Eaton from Mesa, Arizona and her partner, Leigh Klasse, from Surprise, Arizona, and the team of Lisa Smego, from Oro Valley, Arizona and her partner, Karen Brannon from Poway, California. Kim Eaton and Leigh Klasse were the 2016 Champions at Wigwam Resort and Spa. The teams with a score of one under 71 are Kristin Franklin from Broomfield, Colorado and her partner, Lara Tennant from Portland, Oregon, and the team of Colette Rosenberg from Pacific Palisades, California and her partner, Kathy Kurata from Pasadena, California.
