

WOMEN'S TRANS NATIONAL GOLF ASSOCIATION

A Tax-Exempt Nonprofit Organization

Media Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 26, 2017

DAY TWO of the 26th WOMEN'S TRANS NATIONAL GOLF ASSOCIATION SENIOR FOUR-BALL CHAMPIONSHIP Conducted at Temecula Creek in Temecula, California

The clouds parted and the cooler weather made way for bright sunshine, lighter winds, and much warmer temperatures on the second day of the 54-hole Senior Women's Four Ball Championship on the Oaks and Creek course at Temecula Creek. Scoring heated up as well. Still leading the field with a four under 68 today is the team of Corey Weworski from Carlsbad, California, and Mary Kay Zordani from Palm Desert, California. Their 36-hole total is an impressive 9 under, 135. Tomorrow's competition promises to be exciting. Five teams have a 36-hole total under par.

Another team with a second day score of 68 is the team of Colette Rosenberg from Pacific Palisades, California and her partner, Kathy Kurata from Pasadena, California. The 36-hole total for their team is 139. The team of Jamie Hoffman from Escondido, California, and her partner Heidi Person from Pauma Valley, California, greatly improved their day one total of 78 shooting 69 for a 36-hole total of 147. Kim Eaton from Mesa, Arizona and her partner, Leigh Klasse from Surprise, Arizona, with their second day total of 70 and a 36-hole total of 140 are still in close contention. Scoring 71 today is the team of Lisa Smego from Oro Valley, Arizona and her partner, Karen Brannon from Poway, California. Their 36-hole total is 141. Scoring 71 today also is the team of Boodie McGurn from Richmond, Virginia, and her partner, Cheryl Grigg from Sea Island, Georgia. Their 36-hole total is 145. Scoring 72 today with a 36-hole total of 143 is the team of are Kristin Franklin from Broomfield, Colorado and her partner, Lara Tennant from Portland, Oregon.

The Women's Trans National is celebrating 90 years of tradition in women's golf. The object of this Association shall be to promote and maintain the best interests of the game of golf; to hold an annual Amateur Championship; to hold an annual Senior Women's Four-Ball Championship; to promote good fellowship and encourage good sportsmanship among members belonging to this Association.